Repasa y escribe

A large dashed-line box containing a handwriting practice grid. The grid consists of several rows of horizontal lines. Each row contains several 'X' characters formed by dashed lines. The first row has four 'X's, the second row has five, the third row has six, and the fourth row has seven. The child's right hand is holding a yellow pencil and is currently tracing one of the 'X's in the fourth row. The child's left hand is resting on the top-left corner of the grid.
