

Notting Hill Carnival

London.

When did it start? And Why?

The first Notting Hill carnival was in 1966.

It came from the country Trinidad after people from Trinidad moved to London.

When is it?

It is always in August.

It is on for 2 days
every year.

This year, 2020,
it should be
Sunday 30th
August and Monday 31st
August.

Where is it celebrated?

It is celebrated in Notting Hill, in Kensington, London.

Is it popular?

YES!

Every year there is about 2.5 million people who go to the carnival.

There are about 40,000 volunteers each year.

About 9,000 police are at the carnival.

How is it celebrated?

Parades

Colourful and big costumes

How is it celebrated?

Steel pan bands

DJ's

How is it celebrated?

Street food markets

Would you like to visit Notting Hill Carnival?

Yes?

No?

Why?