

HAPPY EASTER EVERYONE!!

Hello to you all ! Well I am so happy because , guess whatI am on holidays for two weeks. Yes guys, I 'm starting my Easter holidays on this very Friday. But first , let me tell you a little bit more about me. My name is Shannon and I live in Wembley in the suburbs of London in a big terraced house with a nice small front garden but a bigger back garden. Easter is very important for my parents , me and ; oh I forgot , my little brother Sam. It starts today with Good Friday, when according to the Catholic Church , Jesus Christ was put to death, and Easter is all about the celebration of the Resurrection of Christ on the third day after his death. At the moment I am just back from school and I am drinking tea and eating the hot cross buns Mum has made, this is a strong tradition here in England. Then on Easter Sunday we are going to Church in the morning for mass, the church is always full on that occasion !!.We went to church already last Sunday for Palm Sunday .My aunt, uncle and cousins are coming over for lunch. We will have , roast lamb with vegetables (roast potatoes and peas) and a very big Easter cake or cupcakes as it is getting more fashionable now ! My parents are going to hide Easter eggs(the ones we've painted and others in chocolate) in our back garden ,and then my brother , my cousins and I are going to look for them there. I hope it will be sunny, on TV the weather forecast says it will be fine but in Spring you never know, there can be very unpleasant showers , moreover if it rained, it would ruin the Easter bonnets we girls all wear on that day! Imagine , last year the eggs were under the snow. Anyway, we'll let the younger children get most of these eggs. In late afternoon , we'll all have tea eating our chocolate eggs and other cakes .I am happy because my cousin Amy is going to stay with us during the first week of the holiday and I'm sure you will also enjoy your Easter break !
